MELLON ARENA

Since their inception in 1967, the Penguins have played their home games in a building nicknamed "The Igloo" – originally known as the Civic Arena and now renamed Mellon Arena because of a multi-year sponsorship deal with Mellon Financial Corp.

The Arena, now in its 45th year of operation, is the oldest facility in the National Hockey League. Hockey seating capacity was only 12,580 in 1967, but a series of expansions and modernization programs over the past three decades have increased that capacity to its current 16,940.

Originally built for the Civic Light Opera, the Arena quickly evolved into a site for sporting events and concerts and was home to the Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, as well as Duquesne University basketball and a series of pro teams ranging from indoor soccer to world team tennis. Teams such as the Pittsburgh Pipers and Pittsburgh Condors of the old American Basketball Association also called the Arena home in the 1960s and 1970s.

The Penguins are Mellon Arena's anchor tenant and feature attraction, playing more than 40 games here each season (two preseason games and 41 regular season games in 2006-07).

During its lifetime, the Arena has hosted the Stanley Cup Finals, the NHL All-Star game, the NCAA men's and women's basketball tournaments, the Harlem Globetrotters, professional wrestling, ice skating and gymnastics competitions and popular acts ranging from Elvis Presley and Frank Sinatra to Bruce Springsteen, Garth Brooks and the Backstreet Boys.

Featuring a retractable stainless steel roof, the Arena was built for a cost of $22 million. It was financed by a combination of public and private funds, including outright grants from the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County and Edgar Kaufmann. The Sports & Exhibition Authority oversees Mellon Arena on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. The Regional Asset District (RAD) Board also has provided funding.

mario lemieux

Chairman

The greatest player in franchise history and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, Mario Lemieux fills a unique role in sports as Chairman of the Pittsburgh Penguins ownership group.

Lemieux's name has been virtually synonymous with the Penguins franchise, and he established himself as one of Pittsburgh's all-time sports legends even before assembling a group of investors to buy the club out of bankruptcy in September 1999.

In addition to his feats in the hockey world, Lemieux continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its annual celebrity golf tournament, which raises millions of dollars for charity.

Mario, his wife Nathalie and their four children live in the Pittsburgh suburb of Sewickley.

Chief Executive Officer & President

In his role as CEO and president of the Penguins, Ken Sawyer oversees all of the Penguins' operations. This past off-season, he revamped the club's hockey operations department by hiring Ray Shero as executive vice president and general manager.

He also represents the Penguins in all league matters and is a member of the NHL's Board of Governors.

Sawyer's career spans 35 years, including 14 as the Chief Financial Officer of the National Hockey League and the past seven as an executive with the Penguins. He joined the Penguins as a key part of Mario Lemieux's senior management team in 1999. He was named executive vice president and chief financial officer of the Penguins in September 1999 and was promoted to team president in March, 2003. In January, 2006 he was named CEO of the club.

Sawyer is a graduate of McGill University in his native Montreal. He and his wife, Shirley, reside in Pittsburgh. They have two sons and two grandchildren.

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The Penguins ushered in a new era in hockey management when they named Ray Shero as executive vice president and general manager on May 25, 2006.

Shero, 44, a fresh and dynamic leader, brings 14 years of NHL management experience to his new post. He spent the previous eight years as assistant general manager of the Nashville Predators after serving for six years in a similar role with the Ottawa Senators.

During his time in Nashville, Shero worked closely with veteran general manager David Poile on all aspects of the club's hockey operations. His specific responsibilities included scouting at the amateur and professional levels, contract negotiations, and personnel matters such as arbitration, in addition to overseeing operations of the Predators' top minor-league affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. It is not surprising, then, that Poile was one of his biggest boosters for the Pittsburgh job.

"The timing is perfect," Poile said. "You've have a young, up-and-coming team with a lot of potential, and you have a young, up-and-coming general manager with a lot of potential."

A native of St. Paul, Minn., Shero played college hockey at St. Lawrence University, serving twice as team captain, and was drafted by the Los Angeles Kings in 1982. He worked for seven years as a player agent before making the transition to the front office.

Shero is the son of the late Fred Shero, who coached the Philadelphia Flyers for seven years and led them to back-to-back Stanley Cup championships in 1973-74 and 1974-75. Fred Shero also was GM and coach of the New York Rangers from 1978-80.

Both Ottawa and Nashville made significant improvement during Shero's tenure as assistant GM, building with youth while adhering to a budget and business plan. The Predators went 49-25-8 and established a club record with 106 points in 2005-06, qualifying for the Stanley Cup playoffs for the second straight season. They had the third-best record in the Western Conference and fifth-best in the NHL.

Shero also played an important role in the success of the Milwaukee Admirals, Nashville's top affiliate in the American Hockey League. In 2003-04, the Admirals led the AHL in wins (43) and points (102) and won the Calder Cup by defeating the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins in the league finals. In 2005-06, the Admirals won their second AHL Western Conference championship in three seasons.

Ray and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Christopher and Kyle.

Assistant General Manager

Chuck Fletcher joined the Pittsburgh Penguins organization as Assistant General Manager on July 14, 2006.

He has been heavily involved in player development and scouting while also handling contract negotiations, day-to-day hockey operations and other administrative duties.

In his new post with the Penguins, Fletcher will work closely with Shero on all hockey-related matters, including scouting, overseeing the development of young prospects and contract negotiations. He will also oversee the hockey operations of the club's top minor league affiliate, the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins of the American Hockey League.

Fletcher is the son of longtime NHL executive and Hall of Famer Cliff Fletcher, who led the Calgary Flames to the Stanley Cup as their General Manager in 1989. Cliff is the Senior Executive Vice-President of Hockey Operations for the Phoenix Coyotes and was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 8, 2004.

Fletcher comes from Anaheim, where he completed his first season as Vice President of Amateur Scouting & Player Development, his fourth year overall in the Anaheim organization. He joined the Ducks in the summer of 2002 as Director of Hockey Operations before being promoted to Assistant General Manager, Hockey Operations in the summer of 2004.

Fletcher oversaw all aspects of Anaheim's amateur scouting operations and assisted Executive Vice President & General Manager Brian Burke in the evaluation of prospects and determination of player assignments. His duties also included the careful evaluation of Ducks prospects to determine each player's on and off-ice progression. In addition, Fletcher assisted in coordinating the Ducks' annual training camp, rookie camp and summer conditioning camp.

A 1990 Harvard University graduate, Fletcher spent nine years in the Florida Panthers organization from 1993-2002. He spent more than seven seasons as the club's Assistant General Manager from 1994-2001 and was named Interim General Manager on December 3, 2001. Fletcher's main responsibilities with Florida were contract negotiations, developing and tracking the hockey operations budget, scouting, and supervision of the day-to-day hockey operations of the club. Fletcher also spent four seasons as the General Manager of the Panthers' AHL affiliate.

Prior to joining the Florida organization, he spent two years (1991-93) as a Player Representative for Newport Sports Management and one year serving as the Sales and Merchandising Coordinator for Hockey Canada (1987-88).

A native of Montreal, Quebec, Chuck and his wife Rhonda have two children, a daughter Kaitlin, and a son Keith.

IN THE COMMUNITY

PITTSBURGH PENGUINS COMMUNITY SERVICE: MORE THAN A HOCKEY TEAM

The Pittsburgh Penguins are dedicated to serving our community through a variety of interactive charity and community service programs. The Penguins emphasize education and compassion with programs that are designed to improve the quality of life for the people of Pittsburgh, to educate our youth and to support the underprivileged.

EDUCATION

Scholarship Programs: Since 1992, the Penguins have awarded over $77,000 in scholarships to deserving Pittsburgh area students. The team has awarded 46 Continuing Education Scholarships and 17 Bob Johnson Memorial Scholarships over the past 14 years.

Continuing Education Scholarships: Three $1,000 scholarships are awarded to Pittsburgh inner-city high school seniors each year on the basis of academic achievement, community service and participation in school activities.

Bob Johnson Memorial Scholarships: The $2,500 scholarship was established in memory of the Penguins' late head coach, who led the team to its first Stanley Cup Championship in 1991. Co-sponsored by the Penguins Booster Club, it is awarded to a Western Pennsylvania high school senior for academic excellence, community service and for providing leadership, sportsmanship and a positive attitude as a member of their school's hockey program.

SUPPORT

Pittsburgh Penguins and Tickets for Kids Foundation Collaboration: Tickets for Kids Foundation touches tens of thousands of deserving kids each year in partnership with over 700 community groups in our most forgotten neighborhoods throughout the Greater Pittsburgh area. During the 2005-06 season, the Penguins donated $1.3 million in tickets to Tickets for Kids Foundation. This collaboration between the Penguins and the Foundation allowed over 14,000 of our neediest children to be included at a Pens home game.

Tickets for Kids Foundation is committed to the enriching the lives of lower income deserving children and their families. Over the past 10 years, the Penguins have donated nearly 31,000 tickets valued at over $2.1 million in tickets to Tickets for Kids Foundation.

Score One for Life Blood Drives: The Penguins team up with the Central Blood Bank twice each year to support local blood drives benefiting the Pittsburgh community. The first drive is held in late summer when local blood supplies are typically at the lowest mark at locations including the US Steel Tower, Marriott City Center and at a variety of US Steel mill sites. The second drive is held during the holiday season.

Over the past 13 years, Penguins players, coaches and broadcasters have participated in the drives, greeting donors and signing autographs. The Penguins organization has also donated pre-season game tickets and autographed memorabilia as donor prizes.

Since 1992, Score One for Life drives have yielded over 10,000 registered donors, 8,100 units collected and over 30,000 patients served from its collections.

Food & Toy Collections: Since 1992, Penguins fans have helped feed local disadvantaged families at the team's annual food drive benefiting the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. Fans have donated 18,023 lbs. of food and $12,766 over the past 13 years.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In addition, each year the Penguins hold a toy collection at a home game prior to the holiday season. Proceeds have benefited The Salvation Army's Angel Tree program and The U.S. Marines Toys for Tots program for distribution to our area's underprivileged children. Fans have contributed 9,223 toys and $19,182 since 1992.

Last year, Penguins fans broke all previous donation records for both food and toys with an outstanding display of generosity for those less fortunate.

Make-A-Wish Practice & Party: A long-standing team tradition, each year the Penguins host a special practice and luncheon party for Make-A-Wish children and their families. Children enjoy an up close & personal look at a Penguins practice session. After practice, the entire team and coaching staff joins the families for lunch, chatting with the children, taking photos and signing autographs. Participating families are serviced by the local chapter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Project Bundle-Up: The Penguins partner with The Salvation Army each year to provide a "Penguins Personal Shopping Day" for Project Bundle-Up, a community service program that provides winter clothing for local disadvantaged children. Penguins players are paired with children for a shopping spree at a local retailer to purchase warm, comfortable clothing for the winter months.

"Penguins At Your Service" Dinner: The dinner has established itself as one of the largest charity events in Pittsburgh. Started in 1986, the dinner has raised over $4 million for research into finding a cure for cystic fibrosis. Players, dressed in tuxedoes, pass plates instead of pucks as they greet guests and serve as waiters for the evening. Tipping prizes and auctions are also featured at the event. Proceeds benefit the Western PA Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

COMPASSION

Pen Pals Program: The Pen Pals program was created to benefit individuals who are battling serious illness or have suffered catastrophic loss. Many children are selected from Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. Throughout the regular season, the Pens grant special visits to exceptional individuals and their families.

Pen Pals attend a team practice session with a personal locker room visit, meeting players and collecting autographs. Pen Pals and their families are also treated to a special evening on the town including dinner and the excitement of a Penguins' home game, with a personalized welcome on the arena JumboTron and goodie bags filled with team memorabilia for the children.

Children's Hospital Visit: A team tradition since the 1970s, Penguins players and team mascot Iceburgh make an annual visit to The Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. Players visit each floor of the hospital greeting patients and their families while distributing a variety of team memorabilia. After a room-to-room visit, players join patients in the hospital playrooms for a variety of tabletop activities.

AMATEUR HOCKEY PROGRAMS

Pittsburgh Penguins Summer Hockey Schools: The Penguins offer hockey schools throughout the summer months for youth players age 5-17. Penguins' assistant coach, Mike Yeo, serves as the head instructor for the camp and is on the ice and in the classroom daily with the players. Penguins' radio analyst, Phil Bourque, is the assistant head instructor. Participants receive three hours of on-ice instruction each day, plus an hour classroom session at this five day camp. Power skating, skills development and scrimmaging are included in the on-ice sessions.

Penguins Cup Championships: The Penguins have teamed up with 84 Lumber to sponsor the Penguins Cup Championship Series for high school hockey's PIHL (Pennsylvania Interscholastic Hockey League). After a three week long series of elimination games, two teams each from the A, AA and AAA divisions compete at Mellon Arena for the Penguins Cup and the opportunity to represent Western Pennsylvania in the state championship. Through this sponsorship, over $50,000.00 has been generated for the PIHL in just two years.

Mt. Lebanon captured the 2006 84 Lumber PIHL Penguins Cup Class AAA championship at Mellon Arena.

Junior Penguins: The Penguins have created a partnership the YMCA of Greater Pittsburgh to bring street hockey to the youth of Pittsburgh served by the "Y." The Penguins assist with free equipment, training and on-site clinics to bring the game of hockey to more kids in Western Pennsylvania through the YMCA.

High School Player of the Month Awards: During the regular high school hockey season, four players representing the four districts in the PIHL are honored each month as "high school players of the month." Chosen by the PIHL, the players are recognized at a Penguins game. Each honoree receives complimentary tickets and a commemorative plaque.

Adult Amateur Hockey: Each season the Penguins offer an Adult Fantasy Hockey Camp. Participants and past Penguins players are placed on four teams, competing in a round-robin tournament. The second day of the event all attend a Penguins game at Mellon Arena, with semifinals and championship games on the arena ice after the NHL game. The winning team for the weekend tournament gets to lift the Penguins fantasy Cup and their players have their names engraved on it. Past Penguins alumni participants include: Larry Murphy, Bryan Trottier, Ulf Samuelsson, Syl Apps, Jean Pronovost, Pierre Larouche, Kevin Stevens, Phil Bourque, Bob Errey, Dave Burrows, Warren Young, Mark Kachowski, Francois Leroux, Dennis Owchar, Alain Lemieux, Peter Taglianetti, Troy Loney, Gary Rissling, Duane Rupp, Ken Wregget and special guests, The Hanson Brothers.

one of the intermissions at the Penguins game. This is a tremendous experience for these young hockey players, to be on the same ice as the pros only minutes after the period has ended. They then return to their seats and enjoy the remainder of the game.

Learn-to-Play Hockey Clinics: During the hockey season, the Penguins partner with a local rink or amateur hockey association to conduct a clinic for the players in their learn-to-play hockey program. Penguins' radio analyst and two-time Stanley Cup champion, Phil Bourque, and an assistant, conduct a clinic for as many as 50 little hockey players, with an "assist" from their regular instructors. A visit by Iceburgh on the ice and a time for snacks, photos and autographs follows the on-ice session.

Pens Street Pals: The Penguins have teamed up with local youth agencies and recreational facilities to introduce the sport of hockey to young people not typically exposed to the game. There are currently more than a dozen recreational centers receiving program guidance and equipment to start and maintain programs.

Hockey in the 'Hood: This is an independently run organization that is part of the National Hockey League's Diversity Task Force. The Penguins have heavily supported it since its inception in 2000. Participants from urban communities receive free ice time and instruction. Most recently the Penguins hosted Martha and Peter Johnson, the late Badger Bob's wife and son, to present a check for over $22,000 to Hockey in the 'Hood, on behalf of the Bob Johnson Foundation. Hockey in the 'Hood now calls its traveling team "The Badgers."

The Badger Bob Foundation presented a check for over $22,000 to Hockey in the 'Hood.

Coaching Clinics: The Penguins periodically host coaching clinics for area youth hockey coaches to help improve the quality of instruction our local hockey players receive. Top college coaches, as well as members of our staff have shared their insights in the past.

PENGUINS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Alumni Charity Golf Classic: In 1998, the Pittsburgh Penguins Alumni Association created its signature event – the Alumni Charity Golf Classic - to benefit local charities. Over the past eight years, the event has donated over $190,000 to charitable organizations with an emphasis on children including the Pittsburgh Sledge Hockey Team, the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh Heart Camp, Achieva, Pennies from Heaven, Lifesteps and the Mario Lemieux Foundation. In 2001, the Alumni Charity Classic featured a reunion of the 1991 Stanley Cup Championship Team.

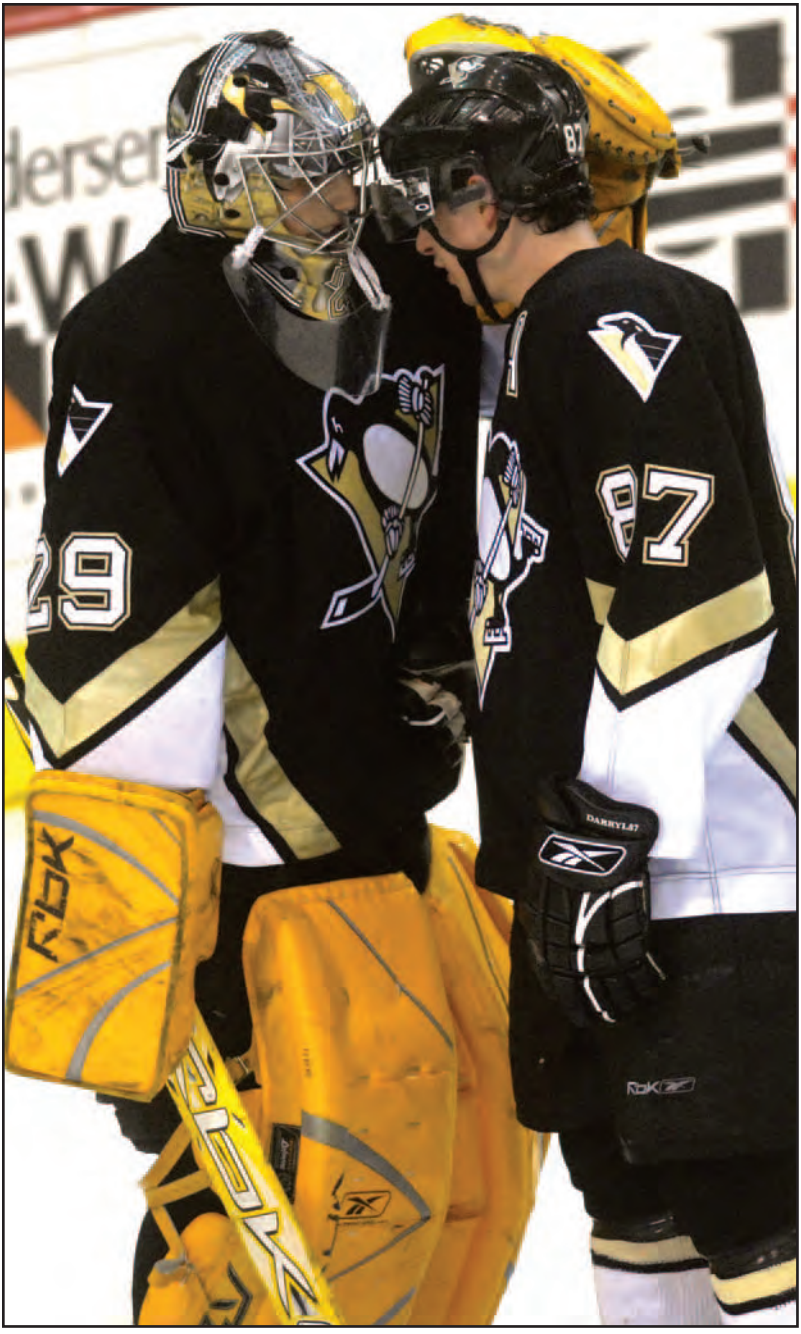

Alumni Scholarship Program: In 2004, the Alumni Association awarded its inaugural Alumni Scholarship to a deserving high school student-athlete. The $2,000 scholarship is co-sponsored by the NHL Alumni Association and is awarded annually to a high school senior for academics and superior participation with his school's ice hockey program.

Super rookie sensation Sidney Crosby changed the NHL record books forever in 2005-06. The 18-year-old delivered one of the best rookie seasons in league history. He became the NHL's youngest player to reach the 100-point mark at the age of 18 years, 253 days as he finished his season with 102 points (39+63) in 81 games. Also, he surpassed Mario Lemieux's Penguins rookie record of 100 points, which No. 66 set in 1984-85.

Crosby finished his rookie season in scintillating fashion. He racked up 37 points in 23 games once play resumed on March 1 following the Olympic break. He fought through a nagging injury in his final five games, but still managed to rack up 11 points (3+8) to complete his record-setting surge over the 100-point mark.

The NHL's previous standard for 100 points by an 18-year-old was set by Hall what they say about sidney:

"He's a great young player. I mean, we've talked about it for many years that we knew this kid was coming. He's got all the tools to be a great, great player in this league and have a great career. You know, he sees the ice very well. Obviously, he's a great skater. He says he needs to work on his shot a little bit, but it looks pretty good to me. He's just a great asset for all of us."

Mario Lemieux

"He's dynamite. He's the real deal. He's got tremendous hockey sense; he moves the puck well; he sees the ice well – obviously he's got great hands. But the thing you learn at a young age that separates the really good players from the average players is…what you do and where you go when you don't have the puck. And he seems to find openings. He seems to get in position to get in the play at all times. What's more important is he has fun when he's playing and it's great to see good players play hard and, yet, really enjoy it. And you can truly feel he enjoys the game."

Wayne Gretzky

"He's very unlike some of the skilled hockey players in the NHL. His work ethic is very good. He's along the [Peter] Forsberg line, where he can do it a couple of different ways. Other guys just rely on their power play or speed or something like that. He's aggressive. He backchecks. He does everything really well. A guy like that, you have to watch him all night long. You can't just watch him in certain situations."
– Post-Gazette, April '06

John Madden

"Great kid. Terrific hockey personality. Important to the game. Obviously, important to his team. I love his competitiveness. Terrific vision. Ding, ding, ding – you can just rattle on about him. I think he's a terrific kid and a great person. He wants it badly. He's deeply committed. The game's better for it when we've got him in our game. I've got a lot of pride in that kid. He's just really important to our game."
– Post-Gazette, April '06

Tom Renney

"He is a special player and a leader on the team. A lot of the older guys look up to him. But when we're on the ice [at the World Championships], we forget about his age."

john leclair

Forward John LeClair concluded his 16th NHL season – and first in Pittsburgh – on a tear in 2005-06. He racked up 25 points (12+13) in his last 27 games. He finished as the team's third-leading scorer with 51 points (22+29) in 73 games played. He was the Penguins' nomination for the Bill Masterson Memorial Trophy.

LeClair eclipsed some major milestones as well. He scored his 400th NHL goal with a power-play tally March 29 vs. Florida and became the seventh American to reach the 400-goal milestone. He recorded his 400th NHL assist March 1 vs. Ottawa. He recorded his 800th career point with an assist on Pittsburgh's first goal in a 5-4 win over the Canadiens on March 18. The Vermont native has racked up 812 points (404+408) in 946 games played.

In addition, LeClair's leadership was an invaluable asset for the abundance of young players in the Penguins' locker room.

Mark Recchi returns to the Penguins after splitting 2005-06 with Pittsburgh and Carolina. He was one of the Penguins' most-productive players as he racked up 24 goals and 33 assists in 63 games before he was dealt to the Hurricanes at the NHL trade deadline.

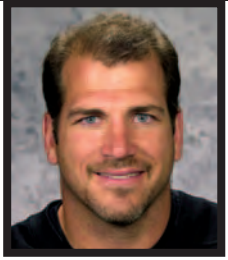

With the Hurricanes, Recchi scored four goals and had three assists in 20 regular season games. However, his biggest impact came in the postseason. He scored seven goals and added nine assists in 25 playoff games to help guide the Hurricanes to the Stanley Cup championship.

Recchi was clutch in the Stanley Cup Finals against Edmonton. He averaged nearly a point per game as he posted six points (2+4) in the seven-game series. Also, he had the game-winning goal in a 2-1 Game 4 win over the Oilers that put Carolina up, 3-1, in the series.

Career

Mario Lemieux wrapped up his Hall of Fame career in 2005-06. Lemieux, the Penguins' captain, retired for the second time in his career. Lemieux, 40, racked up 22 points (7+15) in 26 games before a condition known as atrial fibrillation (irregular heartbeat) sidelined him for good.

He played for the last time on Dec. 16, 2005, vs. Buffalo at Mellon Arena, recording one assist. Mario announced his retirement on Jan. 24, 2006.

He finished his 17-year career as one of the game's all-time greats. In 915 career games with the Penguins, he recorded 1,723 points (690+1,033).

He led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups and also won six NHL scoring titles, three MVP awards and two Conn Smythe Trophies as MVP of the playoffs. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1997.

The Montreal native was the Penguins' first-round pick, first overall, in 1984, and made an immediate impact on the franchise and the NHL. Scoring a goal in his first game, on his first shift and on his first shot, Lemieux registered 100 points in his first season, 1984-85, and received the Calder Trophy as rookie of the year.

He won the Art Ross Trophy as the NHL scoring champion in 1987-88, 1988-89, 1991-92, 1992-93, 1995-96 and 1996-97; the Hart Memorial Trophy as league MVP in

1987-88, 1992-93 and 1995-96 and the Conn Smythe Trophy both times the Penguins won the Stanley Cup – in 1991 and 1992. Lemieux was named a first-team NHL All-Star five times and a second-team All-Star on four occasions.

Super Mario played in 13 NHL All-Star games and was named the All-Star Game MVP three times – including in 1990, when the game was played in Pittsburgh.

No. 66 also was an enormous figure on the international hockey scene. He scored the dramatic winning goal when Team Canada beat the Soviet Union in the 1987 Canada Cup, and was captain of the Canadian teams that won the Olympic gold medal in 2002 and the World Cup in 2004.

Lemieux faced and overcame tremendous physical challenges during his career. He waged a much-publicized and successful battle with Hodgkin's disease in 1993 and also had two major back surgeries and two hip surgeries. The heart condition known as atrial fibrillation, diagnosed during the 2005-06 season, ended his career.

He retired for the first time as a player following the 1996-97 season – having produced 613 goals and 881 assists for 1,494 points in 745 games with the Penguins. The Hall of Fame immediately waived the mandatory waiting period and inducted him in 1997.

But that was not the last we heard from him. In September, 1999, Lemieux carved out another place in sports history when he led a group of investors that purchased the Penguins out of bankruptcy.

*League Leader

Barely more than a year later, he stunned the sports world by announcing that he was returning to the ice as a player – thereby becoming the first player/owner of the modern era.

Lemieux made his comeback on Dec. 27, 2000, scoring a goal and adding two assists in a 5-0 victory over Toronto at Mellon Arena. He finished with a remarkable 35 goals and 76 points in just 43 games that season and helped the Penguins reach the Eastern Conference finals against New Jersey.

After making his comeback, he played in 170 games from 2000-05, recording 77 goals and 152 assists for 229 points.

Despite missing a significant amount of games due to injuries throughout his career, Lemieux retired as the No. 7 all-time scorer in NHL history with his 1,723 points. He also ranked eighth all-time in goals and 10th in assists.

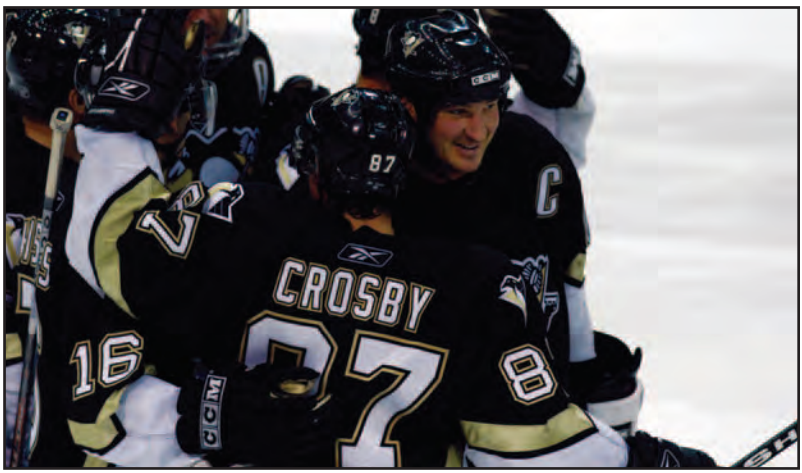

In addition to his hockey accomplishments, Super Mario continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its annual celebrity golf tournament, which raises millions of dollars for charity. In February, 2001, the foundation made a $5 million gift to the UPMC Health System to create the Mario Lemieux Centers for Patient Care and Research.

HISTORY

PENGUINS HALL OF FAME

BOB JOHNSON (1992)

Bob Johnson coached the Penguins to their first Stanley Cup Championship in 1990-91. An outstanding coach with the University of Wisconsin and the Calgary Flames, Johnson became head coach of Pittsburgh on June 12, 1990, and led the team to its first Patrick Division title with 88 points. The Penguins then went on to win the Patrick Division playoff title and the Wales Conference Trophy to earn the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals. The team claimed the Cup on May 25, 1991, with an 8-0 win at Minnesota, with Johnson becoming only the second American-born coach to win the championship. Just six months later, on November 26, 1991, Johnson passed away at his home in Colorado. Thanks in large part to Bob Johnson, it will always be a "Great Day for Hockey" in Pittsburgh.

RICK KEHOE (1992)

Acquired from Toronto on Sept. 13, 1974, Rick Kehoe played 11 seasons with the Penguins (1974-75 to 1984-85). A right wing, he scored a career-high 55 goals during the 1980-81 season - only Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr have tallied more goals in a single season with the team. With Pittsburgh, Kehoe led the team in goals and points on three occasions, recorded 25 or more goals in nine of his 11 seasons, and hit the 30-goal mark five times. Kehoe ranks third in club history with 636 regular season points, trailing only Lemieux and Jagr. He also ranks fourth in games (722), fourth in goals (312), sixth in assists (324), fourth in power play goals (95) and fourth in hat tricks (8). He played in the NHL All-Star Game twice and won the Lady Byng Trophy in 1981.

JEAN PRONOVOST (1992)

Jean Pronovost played 10 seasons with the Penguins (1968 through 1978) and has played in more games than any other player in club history (753) with the exceptions of Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr. A right wing, Pronovost became the first Penguins player to record 50 goals in a season when he tallied 52 in 1975-76. He led the team in goals five times and points twice, recorded 20-or-more goals in nine of his 10 seasons, and played in 70 or more games in eight of those 10. Pronovost ranks third in club history in goals (316), fifth in points (603), eighth in assists (287), fifth in power play goals (70) and third in game-winning goals (42). He represented the Penguins in the NHL All-Star Game four times and served as team captain in 1977-78.

SYL APPS (1994)

Syl Apps was acquired from the New York Rangers with Sheldon Kannegiesser in January of 1971. He spent six full seasons and parts of two others with Pittsburgh, recording 151 goals, 349 assists and 500 points in 495 regular season games. Apps led the team in scoring three times, and currently ranks 10th on the Penguins career list in goals, fourth in assists, seventh in points and fifth in short-handed goals (11). He led the Penguins in assists five times, including the 1975-76 season when he notched a career-high 99 points (32+67). He was also the MVP at the 1975 NHL All-Star Game in Montreal. For four seasons, Apps centered the famed "Century Line" that included right wing Jean Pronovost and left wing Lowell MacDonald. The trio combined for 203 points and 84 goals in 1972-73, 239 points and 107 goals in 1973-74, 214 points and 94 goals in 1974-75 and 276 points and 114 goals in 1975-76.

PENGUINS HALL OF FAME

DAVE BURROWS (1996)

Dave Burrows was one of the survivors of a dying breed - the defensive defenseman - and his perfection of the art made him one of the most popular players in Penguins history. The Penguins selected Burrows from the Chicago Blackhawks in the NHL Intra-League Draft in June of 1971. He played in Pittsburgh through the 1977-78 season, before being traded to Toronto for Randy Carlyle and George Ferguson in June of 1978. He was reacquired by Pittsburgh in November of 1980, and remained with the team through the 1981-82 season. Overall, he played in 724 games with Pittsburgh and Toronto, collecting 29 goals and 135 assists for 164 points. Burrows totaled just 377 penalty minutes in his career, along with just six in 29 playoff games. With the Penguins, he recorded 132 points (24+108) in 573 games and four points (1+3) in 20 post season contests. Burrows played in the 1974 and 1976 NHL All-Star Games and was chosen to play for Team Canada in 1976.

EDWARD J. DEBARTOLO (1996)

Edward J. DeBartolo bought one-third ownership in the Penguins in 1977, then purchased the team outright one year later. With patience and perserverance, the DeBartolo franchise endured a streak of six consecutive seasons without a playoff berth before beginning to rebound in the late 1980s, coming within one game of the Conference Final in 1989. The brightest moment during Debartolo's tenure was the team's first Stanley Cup Championship in 1991. He was selected as the Vectors' Pittsburgh Man of the Year in 1983, was named Youngstown State's Distinguished Citizen in 1984 and was a 1985 recipient of the Ohio Governor's Award. In 1986, DeBartolo was among 80 people chosen to receive the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, presented to American citizens who have distinguished themselves and preserved the values of their heritage. He passed away on Dec. 19, 1994 at the age of 85.

ELAINE HEUFELDER (1996)

Elaine Heufelder served the Penguins and Mellon Arena for more than 35 years. She was the executive assistant for the Civic Arena's first building manager, Charles Strong, and worked for Paul Martha, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., Roger Marino and Mario Lemieux. Throughout her career, she played a key role in the operation of the building and the team's front office. She retired at the conclusion of the 2002-03 season.

MARIO LEMIEUX (1999)

Lemieux is simply the greatest player in Penguins history, the club's all-time leading scorer and the captain of Pittsburgh's two Stanley Cup Championship teams in 1990-91 and 1991-92. Drafted first overall in 1984, Lemieux recorded 613 goals and 881 assists for 1,494 points in 745 games during his first 12 seasons. He won six NHL scoring championships, three MVP trophies, two Conn Smythe trophies as MVP of the playoffs, and the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year in 1984-85. He also became the only player in NHL history to average more than two points per game for his career when he returned in 1997. Lemieux then led an ownership group that brought the club out of bankruptcy in 1999. In December of 2000, he made the greatest comeback in sports history when he re-joined the team's lineup after a 3-year retirement. Limited by injuries in the five seasons of his comeback, Lemieux was limited to 172 game. He added 77 goals, 152 assists and 229 points since he returned to the ice on Dec. 25, 2000. He retired on Jan. 24, 2006, seventh in NHL history with 1,723 points, ninth with 690 goals and 10th with 1,033 assists. He currently serves the Penguins as Chairman of the Board.

Jack Riley was here at the very beginning. The original general manager of the Penguins, Riley assembled the first team in franchise history in 1967 and served two stints as general manager - from 1967-70 and again from 1972-74. He also was team president from 1970-72. A respected figure throughout the hockey world, Jack still serves as a consultant for the American Hockey League. "Jack was the one to pave the way for our organization," said Lemieux, his Hall of Fame classmate. "He gave us the opportunity to have a successful franchise."

JOE MULLEN (2000)

As a youngster, Joe Mullen laced up his roller skates at the corner parking lot in the Hell's Kitchen section of New York City. Years later, he became the first American-born player to score 500 goals in the NHL. His 16-year NHL career is full of milestones including three Stanley Cup Championships (1989 with Calgary; 1991 and 1992 with Pittsburgh). He is currently the fourth leading American-born scorer in league history with 502 goals and 1,063 points in 1,062 career games. Since his retirement from play in 1997, Mullen has been honored with inductions into the Hockey Hall of Fame, the USA Hockey Hall of Fame, the Western PA Sports Hall of Fame and in the Boston College Hall of Fame.

CRAIG PATRICK (2001)

In recognition of a lifetime of contributions to the sport on the local, national and international levels, including his outstanding work with the Penguins, Craig Patrick was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001. Patrick led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups, five division championships, one President's Trophy and 11 playoff berths in his 16 full seasons on the job. He was honored in 2000 with the Lester Patrick Award for his contributions to hockey in the United States. On the international level, Patrick served as an assistant coach and assistant general manager of the 1980 U. S. Olympic team that performed the 'Miracle On Ice,' winning an improbable gold medal. He was also GM of the 1991 U. S. team at the Canada Cup and the 2002 U. S. Olympic team at Salt Lake City. Patrick played eight seasons in the NHL, registering 72 goals and 163 points in 401 games before retiring from play in 1979. His 16-plus seasons with the Penguins represented the longest continuous stint as general manager in team history.

MIKE LANGE (2001)

One of the most talented and unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange has spent 30 seasons as the Penguins' play-by-play voice. He has broadcast games throughout four decades, and his colorful style has made him a hit with hockey fans in Pittsburgh, the tri-state area and across North America. As evidence of his contributions to the sport, the Hockey Hall of Fame honored Lange with the Foster Hewitt Award in November of 2001. Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man. He left for one season, but returned in 1976-77, and has been a staple of the club's broadcasts ever since. Lange worked radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. He serves as the Penguins' primary radio announcer.

PENGUINS HALL OF FAME

ANTHONY 'A.T.' CAGGIANO (2001)

A. T. Caggiano might not be a name that every Penguins fan recognizes, but he played an important role in the organization's first 33 years. A.T. worked in the Penguins' locker room for more than three decades, and was an indispensable part of the team's staff behind the scenes. Looking after players' practice and game day needs and prepping the visitors' locker room, he was the first person in the office each morning and one of the last to leave after every game. Through 33 seasons, he never missed a Penguins home game. A.T. passed away in May of 2003 and, in his honor, the Penguins Booster Club renamed their annual award the 'A.T. Caggiano Memorial Award' prior to the 2000-01 campaign.

LES BINKLEY (2003)

Les Binkley was originally purchased by the Penguins from the American Hockey League's Cleveland Barons in 1966 - a full season before the Penguins played their first National Hockey League game. One of the AHL's top netminders during his seven years in Ohio, Binkley played in Pittsburgh from 1967-68 through the 1971-72 season, appearing in 196 regular season games for the Penguins and seven playoff contests. He ranks second on the team's all-time shutout list with 11, and also ranks second for most shutouts in a season with six, which were recorded during the team's inaugural campaign.

ULF SAMUELSSON (2003)

A Pittsburgh fan favorite for his rugged style of play, Ulf Samuelsson joined the Penguins on March 4, 1991, from the Hartford Whalers with Ron Francis and Grant Jennings, and went on to star as a member of the Penguins' two Stanley Cup teams. A physical defenseman for the Pens, he played 277 regular season games for the team from 1991 through 1995, recording 94 points and 804 penalty minutes, and added 16 points and 123 penalty minutes in 66 post-season contests. His crowning moment with the Penguins came when Samuelsson notched the series-clinching goal in Game Six of the 1991 Stanley Cup Finals in Minnesota.

VINCE LASCHEID (2003)

Vince Lascheid entertained Penguins fans at the Igloo from 1970 to 2003 on the arena's organ. For more than 30 years, his tunes survived the test of time with Pittsburgh sports fans. During his musical career, Lascheid also worked with the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball team (1970 to present) and the Pittsburgh Triangles tennis team (mid-1970s).

UNIFORM HISTORY

When the Penguins made their NHL debut at home on Oct. 11, 1967, the team wore the colors dark blue, light blue and white. Both the home (white) and away (light blue) uniforms simply had the word "Pittsburgh" written diagonally down the front of the sweater with three dark blue stripes around the sleeves and bottom. The logo, although not on the sweater, featured a hockey-playing penguin in a scarf over an inverted triangle, symbolizing the golden triangle of downtown Pittsburgh. The penguin and triangle were set inside a circle bearing the team name.

The following season (1968-69), the uniforms were changed so that the logo appeared on the game sweaters. The logo remained essentially the same, although the penguin was no longer wearing a scarf. The white home uniforms had a wide band of dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom, while the light blue away sweater had bands of white trimmed in dark blue.

The uniforms were changed again four years later (1972-73). The circle around the logo was removed, leaving only a penguin and triangle. Added to the uniforms were inserts of color on the shoulders.

On Jan. 30, 1980, the Penguins wore black and gold for the first time. With the Steelers winning the Super Bowl and the Pirates capturing the World Series title in the same year, the struggling Penguins hoped to gain fan support by aligning their colors with the other teams in the "City of Champions."

Boston protested the color change to the NHL, arguing that black and gold had always been exclusively associated with the Bruins. However, the Penguins prevailed by virtue of a precedent set by the Pittsburgh Pirates hockey club of the late 1920's, which sported the colors. The Pens' new uniforms were the same design as the previous ones, with black replacing dark blue and gold replacing light blue. From 1981-82 through the 1984-85 season, the team alternated wearing gold sweaters with white at home.

The black and gold uniforms remained unchanged until 1992-93, when the triangle and penguin logo was modernized. The white home sweaters featured the new logo on the front and gold shoulder inserts. The black away sweaters had the city's name diagonally down the front, much like the original team uniforms, with the new logo on each shoulder.

During the 1995-96 season, the Penguins were one of five NHL teams to introduce a third jersey. The Penguins' new uniform, which made its debut on Jan. 27, 1996 vs. the Philadelphia Flyers, featured a black background with a new, modernized logo design including innovative striping and a blend of team colors. This sweater eventually replaced the black "Pittsburgh" away sweater in 1997-98, and served as the team's uniform away from the Igloo.

During the 1999-00 season, the Penguins introduced a new third jersey with an eye for the past. The black sweater features the popular "skating penguin" logo, which the team wore during its 1991 and 1992 Stanley Cup championship seasons, and the newest color addition, Las Vegas Gold. That sweater, and its white counterpart, were made the team's official home and road uniforms, respectively, in 2002.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist – An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played – A player receives credit for playing in a game if: a) he steps on the ice during time played or; b) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal – After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal – A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average – Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender – A goaltender receives a win, tie or loss if he is on the ice when either the game-winning or game-tying goal is scored.

Penalty-Killing Pct. – Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus – A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal – A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- If a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- If a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power -play goal.
- If a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.

- If a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is con sidered to have had an advantage.
- If a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due t o a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage – Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage – Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage – Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Short-handed Goal – A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal – If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

Shutout – If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second – If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48).

NHL INFORMATION

Order of Selection for Entry Draft: The order of selection among the Member Clubs in each season shall be determined in the following manner:

A composite of all Member Clubs shall be prepared by placing:

*First the Clubs which failed to qualify for the next preceding playoffs in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest points total and followed by the Club having the next lowest points total, and so forth.

*The Clubs which participated in the next preceding playoffs (but had not been ranked first in their respective Divisions and had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.

*The Clubs which had been ranked first in their Divisions during the next preceding season (but had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.

*The Stanley Cup winner shall select last, thus, positioning all Clubs on the list.

In the event of a tie for any position, such tie shall be resolved by application of the rules governing the determination of final League standings. The resulting list shall constitute the order of selection.

Entry Draft Player Eligibility: All players age 19 or older (1. any player who will be age 18 on or before September 15 in the year in which such Entry Draft is held, or 2. reaches his 19th birthday between September 16 and December 31, both dates included, next following Entry Draft, can attain eligibility by delivering to the League a written notice (Opt in Form) prior to the later of May 1, or seven days following the date such player finishes competing on his team in the year in which such draft is to be held.) are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

*A player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;

*A player who previously played in the League and became a free agent pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement;

*A player age 21 or older who had played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19 or 20.

Unsigned Draft Choices: A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

Entry Level Players:

*Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when first under contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

*In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

*In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-Man Roster: There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

Injured Reserve List: In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures:

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.

2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.

3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.

4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.

5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

For the purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. For purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to five years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 games or more.
